NOTES FROM THE ARRANGER

One great joy of being a choir director who arranges music as well, is the possibility it gives to reimagine familiar songs through a different lens which may better suit a particular concert program, church service, etc. Bob Dylan's music and lyrics are, of course, among the best in the world. As the director of a church choir I thought The Times They Are A-Changin' would be a perfect text for any service or concert with themes of social justice.

My hope with this arrangement is that the reharmonization and contrasting musical style to the original version of the song would bring a new attention and poignancy to these well-known words, and also to give this song a second musical home with choirs and in concert halls where it might not normally be found. I invite you to approach this piece with the reverence, respect, and awe you would any art song.

TEXT

Come gather 'round people wherever you roam
And admit that the waters around you have grown
And accept it that soon you'll be drenched to the bone
If your time to you is worth savin'
And you better start swimmin' or you'll sink like a stone
For the times they are a-changin'.

Come mothers, and fathers throughout the land
And don't criticize what you can't understand
Your sons and your daughters are beyond your command
Your old road is rapidly aging
Please get out of the new one if you can't lend a hand
For the Times they are a-changin'.

The line it is drawn the curse it is cast
The slow one now will later be fast
As the present now will later be past,
The order is rapidly fading
And the first one now will later be last
For the times they are a-changin'!
